

Recently, we were provided with three new clips regarding The Amazing Spider-Man. Since they have been released, one clip in particular has gained mixed reactions from fans. This clip involves Spider-Man messing around with a car thief. There have been many people that have said, this is too mean spirited. That Spider-Man went too far and this is not the character they recognise. However, there have been other fans, who are happy to finally see Spider-Man's sarcastic attitude appear. I am one of those people and during this article, I will go through why I think people are over-reacting. My bet during this clip, is that, this is the first night Peter goes on patrol. What became apparent to myself, is, he was almost treating the thief as a target. Could this possibly mean this is the first time Spidey is properly testing out his web-slingers? I personally believe so. I
