

Avengers: Infinity War is a few weeks into filming, and even though Marvel has yet to issue an official press release, we've been receiving plenty of juicy updates from the cast of the massive film. This latest piece of news comes to us from Josh Brolin, the actor who will breathe life into the film's big bad, Thanos. In a recent live stream on his personal Instagram account, the Academy Award-nominated actor let it slip that he would soon be shooting scenes with three Guardians of the Galaxy stars: Chris Pratt (Jurassic World), Zoe Saldana (Live By Night) and Benicio Del Toro (Sicario). While Pratt & Saldana had been confirmed to appear long ago, this was the first such mention of Del Toro being involved with the two-part Infinity War. To add fuel to the fire, not long after the initial news broke Del Toro was photographed in Atlanta, which is where Infinity War & Black Panther are both currently filming. There is a possibility
