

For years now, rumours have swirled about when we'll finally see a new version of Green Lantern on the big screen. He was supposed to show up in Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice at one point, and later reports of a cameo in Justice League were seemingly debunked when the movie's producers said that we may not even get to see him in the second instalment of that superhero team-up franchise. However, in a new breakdown about the movie over at The Wrap, the site mentions that, "A member of the Green Lantern Corps. will be seen in 'Justice League' in a key sequence." No further details are specified, so we have no idea which member of the Corps this will be. It could even be an alien who shows up as we've heard absolutely nothing about someone being cast as Hal Jordan or John Stewart. The site also mentions that, "Darkseid's presence will loom large in 'Justice League' as the film's
