

"Are you going to Planet of the Apes?" Say what you will about the third season of The Flash, but there's no denying that former Harry Potter star Tom Felton has been a more-than-welcome addition to the cast, especially after his character Julian Dorn officially joined the S.T.A.R. Labs team as a full-time member. His presence on the cast has also led to a couple well-placed Easter Eggs, from the writers, that allude to his past as Draco Malfoy and tonight, it looks like we'll be getting a slight callback to another one of his roles, this time his villainous turn in Rupert Wyatt's Rise of the Planet of the Apes when Barry tells him about Gorilla City and Earth-2. The CW has released a second awesome extended trailer for tonight's big episode, titled "Attack on Gorilla City," which will launch a two-part Gorilla Grodd-centric story for the series. Tonight's installment will feature our heroes making the trek to Earth-2 to rescue Harry from the clutches
