

SIN CITY 2 "I hear so many things, between the cast and Robert, and Frank, because Frank's like my brother," she said. "They hired a new writer, an Oscar-winning writer, to work on the draft." Though she didn't mention him by name, Monahan's hiring became public last Monday. For clarification, King also confirmed that she will have a role in the sequel, saying, "That's what I've been told, yes." "I don't know for sure, now, because they're having a new writer come on," she said of Sin City 2's stories. "But my understanding, it was kind of a melange of the original work of what Frank has done, but everything always comes from Frank, you know what I mean? So even if someone else is writing the physical script, it will always be Frank Miller's ideas." "You know, one minute, Robert would be like, 'Okay, we're shooting in two months.'
