

While the first installment of Guardians of the Galaxy has a host of unforgettable moments, the film's soundtrack, Awesome Mix Vol. 1, is definitely one of the highlights. From Blue Swede's "Hooked on a Feeling" to Redbone's "Come and Get Your Love", the compilation was a massive hit, becoming the first soundtrack album in history consisting entirely of previously released songs to top the Billboard 200 chart. With that in mind, it'll be quite a hurdle for the second film's soundtrack - Awesome Mix Vol. 2 - to top the first, director James Gunn has teased a much more diverse offering of music this time around. "The second soundtrack is great," said Gunn in an interview with Super Interessante. "I think it's a more diverse soundtrack. I think the first soundtrack [had] a bunch of songs that maybe you heard but didn't know the name of the song - you didn't know the name of the singer. In this one, we have some really incredibly
