

Could this be one of those films that sneaks up on the movie-going audience? Met with almost universal groans at the time of announcement, the footage that's been shown recently looks surprisingly good. Below, actress Jane Levy discusses the film. On what fans should expect: JANE LEVY: [Fans] can expect a lot of horror. It's a pretty violent film. There's lots and lots of blood. It's a beautiful movie—visually, actually, it looks so fucking cool. I saw a little bit of the end of the movie when I was in New Zealand and I was like, "Whoa!" Because Fede didn't let me watch playback—he's a big bully. It's a really cool looking movie. Really, really, really cool. On the film's rating: LEVY: Totally. I hate censorship, man. I really do. The thing is, we don't have any sex, which I love. It's not
