

In yet another interview with the Radio Times magazine, veteran actress Jenny Agutter, whose previous and likely misquoted interview resurrected the foolish rumor that Spider-Man will appear in Marvel's The Avengers movie, now discussed her experience on-set of the highly-anticipated movie, after being asked was ever star-struck. Portraying a 'Council Member,' read Agutter's unusual comments below. "It made me laugh. It was so bizarre being on this big set in Santa Fe. I said as much to the director Joss Whedon and he whispered, "Shhh, I'm trying to appear cool." Samuel L Jackson was lovely, so professional. Scarlett Johansson looked sad, so lonely, sitting on the steps of her Winnebago. One wanted to go and give her a hug and I thought, "You can't because you just don't know her." From this interview, we can better imagine who her "Council Member" role will interact with in the film. Be sure to check

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=54116&t=Jenny_Agutter_Elaborates_On_THE_AVENGERS_And_Potentially_Being_Star-Struck