

Following their two previous interviews here and here, The Hollywood Reporter also caught up with the actor and actress behind 'Hawkeye' and 'Black Widow,' Jeremy Renner & Scarlett Johansson, at Disney's D23 Expo. Dishing on fight scenes, injuries, and vaguely on new S.H.I.E.L.D. vehicles, watch the brief video interview below. "It's a massive movie," Renner, who plays Hawkeye in the superhero movie, tells us at the D23 Expo on Saturday. "Yeah, it's a massive production," co-star Johansson, who plays Black Widow, agrees. "We have a lot of sets, and all kinds of vehicles and all kinds different sorts of ships and boats." And while we've already gotten a taste of the fight scenes in the movie from our interview with Robert Downey Jr. and Chris Hemsworth, Renner and Johansson tell us a bit more about its physical challenges. "We're still broken," Johansson jokes. "I'll be having these injuries for years." Marvel's The Avengers
