While the True Blood actor's name has been linked to Zack Snyder's Superman reboot since early November, Joe Manganiello was recently rumored to be backing in the running for the iconic role. Well, while he's addressed the rumors several times in the past, speaking with Extra today, the actor neither confirms nor denies the rumor. "It's not up to me at this point," Manganiello said, referring to rumors he's set to wear the blue tights and red cape in the new film "Superman: Man of Steel" from director Zack Snyder. "I love Zack Snyder, huge fan. I'd be honored if they chose to do that. We'll see. It's out there in the ether." What do you think? Anyhow, while I can't post it up just yet, inside one of Production Weekly's updates, the Superman film apparently follows Clark Kent as a freelance reporter in his early 20's, traveling all around the world covering
