

Since that amazing first teaser trailer, it has been pretty quiet regarding news for John Carter, a big screen adaptation of Edgar Rice Burroughs' BARSOOM series. Film is directed by Academy Award-winning filmmaker Andrew Stanton (Finding Nemo, WALL-E), making his live-action debut with this big action adventure. Now, via Stitch Kingdom, Walt Disney Studios has released official character descriptions from the film. THE EARTHMEN - (From the planet Earth of the late 1800s — light years from Barsoom, a.k.a. Mars): JOHN CARTER (Taylor Kitsch) — “No good’ll come out of me fightin’ your war.” — Born in Virginia, John Carter served as an officer in the Confederate army in the Civil War. He is an honorable and courageous hero, but the ravages of the Civil War have left him broken, dispirited and personally defeated. Accidentally transported to Barsoom (Mars), Carter begins to realize that his strength and jumping abilities are greatly

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/Wolvie09/news/?a=49095&t=JOHN CARTER Official Character Descriptions from Andrew Stantons Big Screen Adaptation