The star of the film Taylor Kitsch, visual effects supervisor Sue Rowe and animation supervisor Eamon Butler were present during the Q&A where they answered a couple of questions about this big screen adaptation of the popular novel written by Edgar Rice Burroughs. First, as far as the preview goes, it seems that everyone really liked it. 7films and Screen Geek were both there, and this what they said and you can also check out the brief video below with everyone's reaction: "...the sequences from John Carter were breathtaking – full of passion, humor and incredible action." - 7FILMS While they didn't show the whole film there, positive reactions to the preview is a good sign. And not to mention that the test screening went great, so
