

HeyUGuys: We saw you on set in the latest Peter Jackson Production diary. What was it like going back and is there any chance you might cameo in it? JRD: I would love to! I've had a great sort of 180 degree turn. After I did The Lord of the Rings, I didn't want to get near prosthetic masks ever again, I still don't really, and I didn't want to play a dwarf to be honest with you. Why be one of thirteen when you can be one of one. As time comes between you and the horrors of that make-up, slowly you begin to see things through rather rosy spectacles. I did go down and see him (Jackson) and I did come as close to grovelling as you can get (Laughs!). I'm sure that Peter knows that I grovelled! HeyUGuys: So you haven't had confirmation that you're in it yet? JRD: I haven't
