

Next week, John Romita Jr. will attempt to break the Guinness World Record for the longest personal signing and drawing appearance. The legendary comic book artist is doing this to raise money for Heroes For Jordan and Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation of Nevada. The current record is 48 continuous hours and was actually set by John Romita Jr. himself back in 2002. Here is an excerpt from the press release. John Romita Jr. Attempts to Break His Guinness World Record of Longest Personal Signing & Drawing Appearance during opening weekend of Marvel's The Avengers motion picture. To secure Jordan's (Heroes For Jordan) lifetime medical and personal needs and assist other children suffering from cancer and life-threatening diseases, John Romita Jr. has teamed with the Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation of Nevada to raise much needed funds for Jordan and for other children diagnosed with cancer. 10 years after he set the original record,
