

The Legion of Doom is coming together very slowly in Legends of Tomorrow's second season, but the synopsis for the sixth instalment makes it clear that the team will soon learn that they're squaring off with the Reverse-Flash! That won't be the focus of "Outlaw Country" though as this episode will mark the return of Jonah Hex. However, will he be that welcoming to the team without Rip Hunter? We'll have to wait and see, but the character's appearance was a highlight of season one, so this should be pretty good fun. As per usual, it sounds like Legends of Tomorrow will provide us with some unique team-ups as Vixen is paired up with Heatwave and the newly powered Citizen Steel goes off on a mission with The Atom and one half of Firestorm. What are you guys most excited to see here? STRENGTH AND WEAKNESS — The Legends are still reeling from the news that their time travel-nemesis is a speedster when
