

Joseph Mazzello recently revealed new details about his Mouse character in G.I. Joe: Retaliation to the Dutch website filmtotaal. As best as I can translate it, he said, "It's something completely different, but I have a lot of fun filming my scenes. I play Mouse, a new Joe with his gun firing bullets and controlling them with a joystick in certain directions can be sent." That is the best I could do with Google translate. But, from what I've also read, basically Mouse will be a brash young Joe who brings technology to the battle. What follows is an excerpt from Joe's interview with heyuguys.co.uk And you're currently shooting G.I. Joe 2? I am. I'm on hiatus from that at the moment. It's going great. [Director] Jon Chu is fantastic and we actually went to school together and he texted me one day with a 'Hey, I have a role for
