

We've previously seen Green Lantern: TAS a few months back, as Cartoon Network gave a sneak peak to draw interest in the series. Mission accomplished! One of the things that struck me was how Keaton really seemed to have captured the 'voice' of Hal Jordan. MTV recently caught up with him to discuss his voice-over work for both Green Lantern and Spider-Man. QUESTION: You've voiced quite a few superheroes! Do you have a favorite? Josh Keaton: I'm gonna have to go with Spider-Man. Spidey was the one comic I read consistently throughout my childhood. As someone who grew up a nerd, scrawny, and picked on in high school, I related very strongly to Peter Parker. QUESTION: When you're voicing someone like Spider-Man or Green Lantern, do you try to make them your own creation, or do you look to how other actors have portrayed them? Keaton: I like to put forth my

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GraphicCity/news/?a=54006&t=Josh_Keaton_Discusses_Providing_The_Voice_For_Both_GREEN_LANTERN_And_SPIDER-MAN