

Here is an interview that Olivia Thirlby gave an NYCC that seemed to go unnoticed. She briefly gushes over the movie's script, and how surprised and thankful she was to land the part. Olivia will be playing the part of the rookie, Judge Anderson. The part is expected to be quite large since Karl Urban revealed a few months ago that the plot would revolve around a day in the life of Judge, and Dredd training the rookie, which is Olivia. Still no confirmation if her character will have psychic powers like her comic book version did. The South African company, Lone Wolf Grips, which provided camera rigs, tracks and grip services for the film. All info and Pictures via Bleeding Cool.
