

"I adore Anne Hathaway," said Julie Newmar, who is best know for playing Catwoman in the camp 1960s TV series, in a recent interview with PopcornBiz. "First of all, she's so gorgeous, and there's something so sweet about her, and I know that she has all these other [performing] abilities. I think she'll be splendid!" As for the allure of a character such as this one, Newmar added: "Catwoman is appealing because she's a rascal. If you're the good kid in the family you kind of get ignored, but if you're the naughty one, you're the one that they're always going after, always looking to see what you'll do next or what's happening here. They're not going to keep their eyes off of you." "It just puts you in a good mood, she revealed when quizzed about her experiences donning the catsuit and whether she think Hathaway will feel the same way. "You

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=44436&t=Julie Newmar Shares Her Thoughts On Anne Hathaway As Catwoman