

Joe Quesada, C.B. Cebulski and Kieron Gillen hosted an Avengers Vs. X-Men panel at the Kapow! Comic Convention earlier today and revealed the following artwork from Avengers Vs. X-Men #5 and #6. As you can see, the two teams face off once again as the first act draws to a close, while Olivier Coipel's pages from the beginning of the second act not only reveal the return of the Immortal Weapons and Charles Xavier, but also what appears to be a very different Marvel Universe...is that a prison the Avengers are being kept in by the X-Men?! Stay tuned for highlights from the panel later today. Click on the images below to view the full size versions.
