

The Rival mortally wounding Kid Flash is what led to Barry Allen deciding to undo Flashpoint, but based on the description for the upcoming sixth episode of The Flash's third season, Wally West is going to start remembering the life he once led. That's happened to a fair few people in Central City, and they've so far all ended up seeking out Dr. Alchemy in order to have their lives and powers restored. Will Wally end up doing the same? We already know that he's desperate to have powers, and while it sounds like Barry will attempt to stop that from happening, you have to believe it will at some point in the near future! Of course, we have no idea what shedding one's old life via Alchemy actually means, so Wally could be about to make a bargain he'll regret in order to embrace his destiny as Kid Flash. WALLY HAS VISIONS OF BEING KID FLASH — When Wally (Keiynan Lonsdale) starts
