

Now that we're finally in the month of July, only two weeks remain before promotional efforts kick off for Marvel's "technological thriller" Iron Man 3, amid this year's San Diego Comic-Con. However, filming is, and will be, well underway in Wilmington, NC for a couple more months, before moving to China. Hinting at potential settings in the Shane Black-directed installment, the most recent casting calls for shoots this month have been released via Tona B. Dahlquist Casting. And offering details for North Carolina locals who fancy a background role in the film, check them out below listed in the order they were issued. "1 African American Beauty queen type. Should be 18 -25 years of age. 5'3 -5'8 and in good shape. Must be comfortable in a swimsuit. submit photos and information to us at cagedheatextras@gmail.com with heading BEAUTY" "Seeking females ages 20-30 yrs. All ethnic backgrounds needed (to include Middle

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=62721>