

Marvel Studios surprised many when they unveiled the end credits sequence for Scott Derrickson's Doctor Strange, which featured a very unexpected meeting between Benedict Cumberbatch's Sorcerer Supreme and his future Avengers teammate, Thor, played by Chris Hemsworth. With the film arriving on Digital HD platforms tomorrow (and Blu-ray/DVD on Feb. 28), Marvel has released a sweet new featurette that further details the process behind creating the monumental meeting between heroes and vaguely teases their upcoming partnership in Taika Waititi's Thor: Ragnarok, which is due out this November.
