

@wponx (which is a verified account) has released another image from Logan, this time offering up a first look at a rather...sinister location. Could this be Weapon X? It's possible, but there aren't any clues here which reveal that one way or another. The Spanish sign displayed on the fencing roughly translates to something along the lines of, "It's forbidden by law to trespass or loiter in this area." 8 Great Comic Book Characters Who Were Completely Wasted In Fox's Marvel Movies Chances are that both this and the photo we saw last night were taken during the period Logan was shooting down in New Mexico. If memory serves, there were reports at the time that Wolverine was battling men clad in black outfits, and those definitely sound like the sort of shady government types who might work for Weapon X. We'll have to wait and see, but for now, share your thoughts below. Aviso
