

20th Century Fox's Logan may be one of the most heavily guarded comic book movie projects in recent memory, but with the trailer release expected at some point this month, the filmmakers have been sharing bits and pieces from their highly anticipated production and today, we finally have confirmation on one of the film's villains! The wponx Instagram account has published an image of what looks to be Boyd Holbrook (Gone Girl) with a caption that reads:

“Pierce.” Considering that we already know one of the groups of villains Wolverine will face in his farewell tour are the criminal cyborgs known as the Reavers, it's probably safe to assume that this Pierce is actually the Donald Pierce, the leader of the Reavers. With Donald Pierce confirmed, could Lady Deathstrike be next? Only time will tell. Check out the image
