

The CW has released a first look at next week's episode of Legends of Tomorrow, and in it, we see the team attempting to stop Damien Darhk in the 1980s. Rory doesn't seem too happy to be there, but look closely at the promo below and you'll notice that Citizen Steel seems to be having a great time teaming up with Obsidian, a hero we met as a younger man in the "Justice Society of America" episode. What did you guys think of tonight's instalment? Share your thoughts in the usual place. When the Legends trace a timequake to President Reagan's White House, they are shocked to discover their old enemy Damien Darhk (guest star Neal McDonough) is now a Senior Adviser to Reagan. As the team works to uncover what Darhk has up his devious sleeve, Sara (Caity Lotz) struggles with the choice of getting revenge or helping with the team's larger mission. Thinking that the JSA members could be of
