

Following tonight's 1980s set episode of Legends of Tomorrow, next week's instalment - titled "Outlaw Country" - will take the team back to the Wild West as they once again team up with Jonah Hex. The character starred in an ill fated movie a number of years ago, but the first season of this spinoff series is widely credited with finally doing the hero justice in live-action. Is he going to join the team though?! The Legends are still reeling from the news that their time travel-nemesis is a speedster when they are alerted to an Aberration in the Old West. When the Legends arrive they find their old friend Jonah Hex (guest star Jonathan Schaech) in trouble with his arch-nemesis, Quentin Turnbull (guest star Jeff Fahey). The team soon discovers that they need to stop Turnbull and his gang from conquering the West and branding it his own lawless territory. To Hex's surprise, Sara (Caity Lotz) is in charge and dispatches
