

Last month, a casting call for Marvel's highly-anticipated film The Avengers was sent out to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base located in Wilmington, Ohio. And now according to Dayton Daily News, the "airmen extras" the studio were in search of have been found; along with a speaking role for the base's Staff Sgt. Demoine Kinney. Revealing his excitement for the minor role, as well when and where his scene will take place and who with, here's what Kinney had to say. About 50 Wright-Patterson airmen will also be used as uniformed extras in a scene filmed on an aircraft carrier, playing sailors, not fliers. "As I understand it, I will have lines to say and I will be in the deck scene (on an aircraft carrier) along with Samuel Jackson and Robert Downey Jr. Yes, me. That's all I know about the movie at this point." Kinney didn't audition in person. His manager had
