

Earlier today we got confirmation that the new, apparently final trailer for James Mangold's Logan would be online at some point tomorrow. We assumed that'd be the end of the promotion until after it debuted, but star Hugh Jackman has now shared yet another black and white image to Twitter. The pic is captioned "Waiting", and gives us a new look at Dafne Keen as Laura, who is all-but confirmed to be the viciously formidable X-23. It's going to be very interesting to see how this character is handled in the movie, and how/if she's utilized in other X-related projects moving forward. In the near future, a weary Logan cares for an ailing Professor X in a hide out on the Mexican border. But Logan's attempts to hide from the world and his legacy are up-ended when a young mutant arrives, being pursued by dark forces. Logan claws its way into theaters on March 3.
