

Tv Guide.com report that Maggie Q (Priest, Nikita) has landed the role of Wonder Woman in the Young Justice cartoon. The character has been glimpsed in the show before, but only briefly and never had a speaking role. We will hear Miss Q lend her voice to the Amazonian Princess in the March 24 episode entitled "Agendas". Here is what the actress had to say.. "In my head I am her! No stretch there. When I was a kid, I used to dress up as her. I couldn't afford a costume, so I would make her headband, wristbands and the lasso out of paper and tape it to myself. And [I'd] run around, climb up roofs and try to jump off them. There is nothing cooler than having lines like, 'Batman, the fate of the world is upon us.' Who gets to say that? And who gets to say that in a

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/rorschachsrants/news/?a=56324>