

Before the Boy Who Lived, there were the Fantastic Beasts! Warner Bros. Pictures is currently hosting a Global Fan Event for their upcoming Harry Potter spin-off Fantastic Beasts and Where To Find Them and to ensure all Potterheads get a chance to partake in the festivities, they've launched a live stream for the full event. Academy Award-winner Eddie Redmayne, Golden Globe-winner Colin Farrell, and several other members of the cast are present in both London & Los Angeles to answer questions from fans worldwide, so check them out below. You can catch the exclusive featurette with over four minutes of never-before-seen content in the first video, and the full global fan event is streaming in the second link: Plus, check out the IMA poster below: “Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them” opens in 1926 as Newt Scamander has just completed a global excursion to find and document an extraordinary array of magical creatures. Arriving in New York for a brief stopover, he might have come and gone without

Read more: <https://www.comicbookmovie.com/fantasy/magical-new-footage-from-fantastic-beasts-and-where-to-find-them-debuts-a145973>