

According to Screenrant.com and tv line... Glen Mazzara has mentioned that he's going to try to stay as close to the source material as possible this season. A few of the Survivors will NOT be making it out of the prison. Below is an excerpt from the screenrant.com article: "There's no place we won't go. Everything is on the table. This is a cutting edge cable drama. I'm comfortable with that material and we answered a lot of these questions on say the Shield and when I worked there, so I'm comfortable dealing with very, very edgy material. That being said, you want to make sure that things are not gratuitous, that things are not offensive for the sake of being offensive. I don't ever want the show to get too bleak. I think we've done a good job of creating characters that people care about. I think there's a heart to
