

Click Here for the Full Article from moviehole.net According to Movie Hole the main plot of the show will revolve around the son, Eddie Munster. A character that will be a pre-teen that will be suffering a "condition" which makes him become a werewolf. Once Eddie has a problem with his wolf-self his parents Herman and Lily are forced to move their family to protect their son. Most of the secondary characters are described very weakly and much of the first episode will follow the family around. On a very positive note the first episode plans to pay homage to the late great actor Fred Gwynne who was the original patriarch of the family. Bryan Fuller of Pushing Daisies wrote the story, while X-Men director, Bryan singer is directing the pilot episode and is the executive producer. Movie Hole's source says the show feels more like Parent Hood with an Anne Rice feel
