

Of Cavill, the Daily Mail writes, "It looked like Man of Steel star Henry Cavill was on the look out for the nearest phone booth today. For the English hunk, who is playing Superman in next year's reboot, turned up in his plain clothes for a photo shoot with his fellow cast members. Luckily for the actor, there is little doubt he will have been furnished with the clothing he needed by the helpful production staff. "He was joined by his co-stars for the exciting photography session. Amy Adams, who is playing Clark Kent's fellow Daily Planet reporter and love interest Lois Lane, looked far from glamorous in an ensemble of grey cardigan, white scarf and yellow sunglasses," the paper opined, adding, "Surprisingly it was old smoothie Kevin Costner who managed to win the fashion battle. The 57-year-old Waterworld favorite, who is starring as Clark's adopted human father Jonathan, looked suave in wa waistcoat,
