

Courtesy of Showbiz Spy "The pictures of Henry on the Man of Steel shoot have certainly created a buzz about the movie but it's a little off target," reveals a movie insider. "All everyone's talking about his Superman's crotch and those missing pants. The new look was supposed to create new interest in a classic character but the way things are going Superman may be forced to get his pants back on. It's either that or Man of Steel could be the first R rated Superman movie!" The people of Dragon*con get a good laugh at Henry's suit I actually think the costume looks pretty awesome. I could do without all the ornamental design on the side of the suits, since that is distracting, and reminds me too much of Aquaman's newest costume. I don't think the super crotch on Cavill is distracting, or lewd as the source and the video above suggests. To me
