

Yorkville's Mayor Gary Golinski confirmed the application request when asked by Yorkville Patch. He was unsure if the production would ultimately film in Yorkville, but he did speculate toward Chapel on the Green (a church built in 1855). In an earlier report, a supposed production schedule for the film listed a funeral. Could filming at Chapel on the Green give some affirmation to this? Meanwhile, set-construction continues rapidly in Plano. The city's Mayor, Bob Hausler comments via Yorkville Patch: It actually changes every day. They're doing a fast job of constructing their buildings for their sets. We really welcome anyone who would want to come to our Main Street, walk around and go to our businesses.
