

The following are a fairly random bunch of set pics from today's shoot featuring our first look at Russel Crowe on set, though not as Jor El, some more army helicopter presence, Henry Cavill in his car and a mysterious costume being transported in the back of a trailer. The pics were snapped by the intrepid photographers from the MOS Facebook page who are out daily on the Plano Illinois set. I'm not 100% sure if this is still the Smallville set but if so, it would be a bit strange that Jor El would be around? More info as we have it anyway. By TwitterButtons.com
