

Talking to clevverTv.com about his upcoming episode of Glee, actor Dylan Sprayberry also dished out a few intriguing tidbits about Zack Snyder's Man of Steel. Question: Can you tell us a little about Man of Steel and your upcoming projects? Sprayberry: I just finished shooting Man of Steel. That was in Canada and Chicago. I filmed that all last year. After that I did "Common Law." That's going to be on USA coming up pretty soon. I played the son of Sonya Walger. That was really cool. Question: What will people really love about Man of Steel? Sprayberry: When Zack [Snyder] and I were talking about it the first time, he was saying how Superman, they want to give it a more edgy feel like The Dark Knight but also make it more realistic and emotional so it's not just the all-american superhero that saves everyone. He has dilemmas and love and struggles throughout the whole

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GraphicCity/news/?a=57710>