

It looks like we can put any doubts about Ruffalo doing the motion capture work for The Hulk in The Avengers to rest now for certain. The actor spoke to Movieweb about the process, and revealed that this version of The Hulk will almost be an exact replica of himself, right down to his wrinkles and body hair.. "No one has asked me to shave my chest yet, thank God. They want this Hulk to be as close to me as possible. I'll be playing him in motion-capture, so this Hulk will just be a bigger avatar version of me. As they're modeling him, they're using many of my own features, down to my scars and wrinkles. He will have body hair, but I don't know to what extent." That sounds very interesting. It will certainly be a departure from the previous incarnations we have seen of the character. Get a glimpse of

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/rorschachsrantrants/news/?a=35203&t=Mark\_Ruffalo\_Gives\_Us\_An\_Idea\_How\_The\_Hulk\_Will\_Look\_In\_The\_Avengers