

Someone, call Alpha Flight! Quick! The police were triggered by gang violence, and 900 officers searched 67 locations to find the material. They filed the charges against 60 people, including some young offenders. In today's press conference, police said there was more work to be done. And thank goodness none of those young offenders had been members of the New Warriors. THOSE poor kids can't handle anymore of this kind of publicity after that Stamford incident. Look what happened to poor Speedball, for goodness sakes! Follow @HiltonCollins
