

Just like Daredevil & Jessica Jones before it, Marvel's Luke Cage premiered to rave reviews last week and even managed to shut down Netflix for a few hours on its first day, which is just what the Power Man ordered. The show's soundtrack has been receiving a lot of love this past week and it looks like Marvel knew the score was straight fire going in because they've just announced an Original Soundtrack Album for Season 1, which is the fastest they've ever released a soundtrack album for one of their Netflix series. It will contain fifty-one original compositions from Adrian Younge & Ali Shaheed Muhammed and will also contain tracks from Raphael Saadiq, Faith Evans, Sharon Jones & The Dap-Kings, and Charles Bradley. The Method Man track "Bulletproof Love," which was released as a single last week, will also be featured. It goes on sale tomorrow, so be sure to check into iTunes or Amazon at midnight for the link.
