

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/Gaston/news/?a=28878&t=Marvel_Reveal_Their_Top_10_Superheroes_Of_2010

Every year, Marvel release a list celebrating the superheroes who were in the spotlight the previous year. These are the characters that made headlines and sold more comics than any other character in Marvel. This is the official list as well as a year-in review for each character written by Ben Morse: 10. IRON MAN 2010 Opponents: Norman Osborn, The Ghost, the Hammer Girls Year in Review: Poor Tony Stark spent the first part of the year brain dead after sacrificing his magnificent mind to keep its secrets out of Norman Osborn's hands, but Iron Man would rally to play a key role in Siege as well as bringing the Avengers back together. Closer to home, Shellhead formed a new company—Stark Resilient—and exposed would-be armored "hero" Detroit Steel for the Hammer-backed fraud he turned out to be. 9. LUKE CAGE 2010 Opponents: The Hood, the Dark Avengers, Lionfang Year in Review: Having led the Avengers through tough