

What do the Chicago White Sox, Washington Nationals, Texas Rangers, Atlanta Braves and Oakland Athletics all have in common? This July 4th all the teams I just mentioned will be featuring huge post game, Independence Day, Fireworks celebrations presented by Paramount Pictures and Marvel Entertainment's Captain America:The First Avenger. Below are just a few excerpts from the White Sox official press release... The Chicago White Sox will host an Independence Day Celebration and Fireworks Show, presented by Captain America, when the team faces the Kansas City Royals on Monday at 6:10 p.m. Paramount Pictures also will promote the upcoming Captain America: The First Avenger movie (in theaters July 22) and will give away t-shirts and mini posters on the main concourse at Section 157. Hawksblueyes: It makes perfect sense that on what is undoubtedly America's most "patriotic" holiday, Marvel would use America's pastime to promote The First Avenger. By TwitterButtons.com

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GulfCoastAvengers/news/?a=40802&t=Marvel_Turns_to_Major_League_Baseball_July_4th_to_Promote_iCaptain_AmericaThe_First_Avengeri