

Jim Starlin is something of a legend in the comic book community. If you have a character that needs to be killed then Starlin's your man. All jokes aside, Starlin has created some of the most memorable comic runs for both Marvel and DC and has created such well known characters as Captain Marvel, Adam Warlock, Shang-Chi and of course Thanos. Speaking to Hero Complex Starlin discusses his creation and his reaction to seeing Thanos on the big screen. HC: When did you find out Thanos was going to be in the film — and was it hard to keep it a secret? JS: I was only alerted by friends to Thanos appearing in the film a few weeks before the opening. They'd come across rumors about it on the Internet. So I had no problem at all about keeping that particular secret. HC: Thanos has such a memorable visage and powerful
