

Massi Furlan is best known for his roles in Criminal Minds and the soap opera General Hospital. The Italian born actor gave an interview to the Examiner's Niema Hulin, in which he talks about his struggles to make headway in Hollywood with his accent. Even telling a story about how he auditioned for the role of a Russian mobster, and was asked if he could try to sound more American. By the way if I had to speculate I would guess that Massi is playing one of Bane's mercenaries. I actually think he might be one of the mercenaries in those official still that were just recently released. I'll have comb over them again and see if I can spot him. On Being Cast As A Villain Often "I was a stand up comedian in Italy. I guess Americans; they don't find me funny because yeah I get cast as a villain
