

Below is a brief excerpt from an interview Miss Fox did with Collider. I asked people on Twitter for questions and one of the questions that came up a number times was if you were interested in doing another comic book property. Fox: Yeah. I love comic books. I just do. I think they're fun movies. Even when they make them into movies and the movies aren't great – I still think they're fun and I will watch them every time I go to a hotel. That's where Brian knows to go right into Action/Adventure and to find the comic book movies. There's something about that. I don't think that little kid ever grows up in any of us. It's just exciting to watch something that you read your whole life come to life – even if they don't do a great job. What
