

The CW has released the first description for the fourth episode of Supergirl's second season, and in it, we learn more about what's to come in the series after the premiere broke ratings records earlier this week on its new home. There's a lot going on in this instalment as the Girl of Steel takes Mon-El under her wing and later finds herself in an alien fightclub alongside fan-favourite hero, Martian Manhunter. It's that which seemingly leads to them meeting M'Gann, a character better known to comic book fans as Miss Martian. Her role in Supergirl promises to give Hank something new to do and should shake up the status quo quite a bit assuming she sticks around. "Survivors" is set to air on October 31st, so stay tuned for more on this one as we get nearer to Halloween. Do you think this episode sounds good?
