

While the first details emerged earlier today, SHH has posted their take on Walt Disney Pictures' presentation at Las Vegas' CinemaCon, for Marvel & Joss Whedon's crossover extravaganza The Avengers. With the highlight being the reveal of concept art of actor Jeremy Renner in costume as the archer Hawkeye, a few more details have unveiled. Basically, Hawkeye's costume is going to be very similar to the Ultimates version of the character. In the concept art, we see Renner wearing similar dark glasses and a leather outfit with a matching over-the-shoulder leather quill for his arrows, only the movie version of Hawkeye has the S.H.I.E.L.D. logo emblazoned on it to show his government allegiances. His precision bow is much like the one used by archers who do it for sports and hunting, which again, is also much like the Ultimates Hawkeye. In addition, the presentation also included a sizzle reel, and interviews with The
