

In season 8 of Smallville, Geoff Johns penned his first episode for the series entitled "Legion", which brought the three core members of the Legion of Superheroes from the 31st Century and onto our screens in Smallville. The next year, we were given the first ever 2-hour movie event of the series in "Absolute Justice", starring the first superhero team ever assembled in comics, the Justice Society of America. Now, in Smallville's tenth and final season, we were given a showboating, glory grabbing hero in "Booster", starring the greatest hero we've never heard of.... until now-- BOOSTER GOLD!! These three AMAZING episodes in the last three years were all brought to life from the DC Comics legendary comic book writer Geoff Johns. Since 2008, Smallville fans have always looked forward to seeing what famous DC Comics characters Geoff would bring to Smallville next. No one thought Geoff could

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/superman_movies/smallville/news/?a=35772&t=MY_REVIEW_Review_of_tonights_iSmallvillei_Episode_Booster