

Today Online chatted with Natalie Portman about Thor, which is due out on May 6. She also spilled that she is signed on for two more Thor movies and that she is not going to be in The Avengers. On how Thor compares to other action adventure movies she has been in: "Well, it was really amazing to get to work with Ken Branagh on this and that was the biggest draw for me in the beginning. On some of the big action films, things like character and story can get a little lost and be overshadowed by all the big bang stuff. With Ken, he was very concerned with the text and with our characters. It was like, 'We're going to work on this as if it were Shakespeare.'" On if she read Thor comics before she shot the movie: "They showed me the Thor comic books when we started talking about it but,

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JakeLester/news/?a=35608&t=Natalie Portman Says She Is NOT In The Avengers